

Protection for Elected Officers

Community, sporting and governing bodies nationwide have elected representatives that are often unpaid for their services. The organisation can protect these individuals for claims brought against them which arise from carrying out their duties.

COVERAGE BENEFITS

Protection for the organisation and the individuals

- > Including, governors, elected representatives and committee members
- > Can include cover for Professional breaches and Quasi Judicial investigations
- > Cover for outside positions held at the request of the entity

Sections

- 1.1 Loss and Defence Costs for claims made against the Insured Persons
- 1.2 Loss and Defence Costs for claims made against Insured Persons which are indemnified by the Named Insured entity
- 1.3 (optional) Loss for claims made against the Named Insured entity for a Breach of Professional Duty

Capacity

> $10,000,000 in the aggregate

> $30,000,000 for companion General Liability

TARGET CLIENTS

Community Sporting Clubs

Industry Representative Associations

Not For Profit Community Associations

BREACH OF PROFESSIONAL DUTY – OPTIONAL EXTENSION

- > Subject to the Organisation providing a professional service to its members, cover can be extended to include claims for Loss and Defence Costs arising from breach of professional duty

- > Defamation, Fair Trading Act 1986, Dishonesty and Fraud, Loss of Documents and Quasi Judicial Costs are included in this extension – optional cover

- > Capacity $10,000,000 in the aggregate

TERRITORY / JURISDICTION

- > New Zealand domiciled risks

Associations Liability Insurance
Protection for Elected Officers

RISKS FACING ASSOCIATIONS

Funds mismanaged by a committee member

Allegations against officers for breaching privacy

Defence costs in relation to allegations made by members for a breach of duty

How the organisation will provide indemnity to officers in accordance with the constitution

Allegations against officers following an injury to an employee

Allegations of defamation

Allegation following wrong advice to the Association members